URBAN RANGE

We design, We make, We fit We bring joy

Innerspace Cheshire is based in Whitchurch in the North West of England where we make products that are kind to people, the planet and animals.

Our local, dedicated team of makers hand craft our product range at our workshop. And our installation team travel up and down the country to fit all products nationwide.

Brickwall.raw

URBAN RANGE

Brickwall raw panels have a white, unfinished form that can act as a neutral backdrop, providing flexibility for diverse styling options. The light-reflective nature of the white surface contributes to a brighter spaces. With raw panels, you have the freedom to hand paint them in any desired colour, offering a customisable touch to your decor.

Bricks+moss

URBAN RANGE

Bricks+moss is an option to bring a biophilic touch into your selected brick panels. Our Naturemoss lowland is integrated onto the panels in patches, mimicking the organic growth pattern of moss along the mortar lines.
